

The house was converted to administrative office for Men's Housing in December 1961. In the fall of 1968, it was assigned to the School of Art for graduate student and faculty use. (P)

D. DEMOLITION

The building was demolished the autumn of 1970 to provide space for parking. The exact date of demolition is not known, but records in the office of Property Management include an October 14, 1970 letter asking the Purchasing Department to proceed with the demolition.
